Understanding of Terms and Conditions

- * Fees are due on a weekly basis. You can pay monthly weekly or by the term but they must always be in advance. If your fees continue to remain outstanding after the due date you will be contacted and your child will no longer be able to participate in classes.
- * All classes are to be paid for if your child attends or not.
- * All outstanding fees – for both costumes and classes – must be paid prior to the concert or students will not be permitted to perform.
- * Classes are not allowed to be watched by parents or anyone else, watching week is the last week of each term. This rule does not apply to the first few weeks of toddler and mini movers classes when the little ones are trying to settle in.
- * Students doing eisteddfods must attend all extra rehearsals.
- * I understand that pictures and video footage of my child may be used for publicity and for promotional reasons of the studio. If I do not want my child included in any promotional or publicity photos/emails/websites etc I will contact Cathy Brown regarding this.

CONCERT AND COSTUME CONDITIONS

Our yearly Concert is a huge event for all involved. We go to a lot of trouble, organizing costumes, props, notices, music, lighting, staging, photos, rehearsals etc. It is expected that when you enroll you will participate and attend all required classes and rehearsals, as well as pay all fees & costume costs. Costumes will not be issued until all fees and costume costs have been paid. Concert date will be out in the first few weeks of term one and always available on our website from that day on.

If you decide not to do the concert, you must notify both Cath and Kristen (costumes), otherwise any outstanding costume costs will have to be paid. If you have paid costume costs they will not be refunded if you decide not to participate in the concert. You will get to keep your costume that has been ordered and sized for your child. In Term 4 classes will be structured around students who are participating in the concert. This means some classes may be interrupted with costume fittings and rehearsals.

A deposit of $20- per student per costume will be added to your costume account by the last week of term 2.

This is non refundable as at this stage we are already organizing costumes.
